funeral director monthly

Your chance to become a regular subscriber to the official monthly publication of the National Association of Funeral Directors

The Funeral Director Monthly is designed to keep Funeral Directors abreast of important industry developments by highlighting new initiatives, carrying updates on UK, European and International issues and reporting on key business subjects, such as Health and Safety and Employment Law.

It is also the official Magazine of the National Association of Funeral Directors, the UK's longest established and most representative funeral trade organisation. The NAFD, which was founded in 1905, is committed to representing the interests of the entire funeral profession - from independent family businesses to major corporate groups and supplier businesses - and to raising debate on the issues which matter.

Non-Members of the National Association of Funeral Directors can subscribe to the Magazine for just £60 per year, inclusive of postage and packing.

Overseas subscribers are also welcome to subscribe to the Magazine, Republic of Ireland and Europe £90 per year, and £130 for subscribers outside Europe, including packing and international postage.
